PRESENTS

South Shelby

Shelby County R-IV School District
Shelbina, Missouri

The South Shelby annual staff derived the name of the 1966 yearbook by taking every fourth letter of South Shelby Cardinals, thus getting its name--TECIS.

SOUTH SHELBY LIFE

On November 23, 1966, South Shelby opened its high school doors. Today it ranks among the outstanding high schools.

We are proud that our community has shown an ability to move with the times, while yet keeping the strength of her heritage.

We are also concerned with tomorrow. We have a challenge to face-- to submit to our successors not only a greater and better South Shelby High, but as is always the way of progress, a better community, and a better world for each succeeding generation.

"Oh! You wouldn't believe!"

"Well at least they feed us--at least!"

"We're back."

"You want something?"

"My Daddy was a lumberjack."

"All right you guys."

"Let's get these books balanced."

SOUTH SHELBY LIFE

I wish this dance was over.

Roger!!!!!!

Watch it, John.

This is neatness?

"Do you think we should invite Mr. Crawford to join us?"

Do it just like this, Kathryn.

DR. TOMEI

"If you only knew what I know."

"Happy Birthday, Linda."

"They said it couldn't be done."

Wow!

"Smile, Louise, it's later than you think."

"Now you know I'm right."

"All leaders have a few followers."

SOUTH SHELBY LIFE

"Why don't you pick on somebody your own size."

"By the way Roger, what's number four?"

"Jimmy's so cute."

"Are you looking for a fight?"

"C.E., I think there's something you ought to know."

"Gary, do you smell something?"

"Really?"

"I didn't think that was very funny."

"Ready or not, here we come."

"M-m-m, the best kiss I've had all year."

"Cheese", "Roquefort", "Weenie".

"Oh, Bobby you say the funnest things."

"Alright boys we'll have none of this."

"I'm going to paint a picture!"

"Hey, that could be fun."

The Big Five says, "Hi!"

Mr. Cox's English class is a very disciplined group

English Speech Guidance

Miss Miller, guidance counselor, directs the college bound student.

Our fine library offers exceptional reference material, as well as a quiet study area.

COUNTRY INN TRUCK STOP

Mathematics and Science

Ms. Jones' algebra class is preparing for the big final on Friday.

Here, Mr. Churchill's chemistry class is doing one of their famous experiments-making coffee.

Business Education and Home Economics

Typing is such fun under Mrs. Sylvara's able guidance.

Mrs. Latimer teaches one of her home economics classes to put in a hem.

Industrial Arts and Vocational Agriculture

The industrial arts class under the direction of Mr. Keller is taking advantage of the new equipment.

Mr. Peeper's vocational agriculture class discusses the importance of crop rotation.

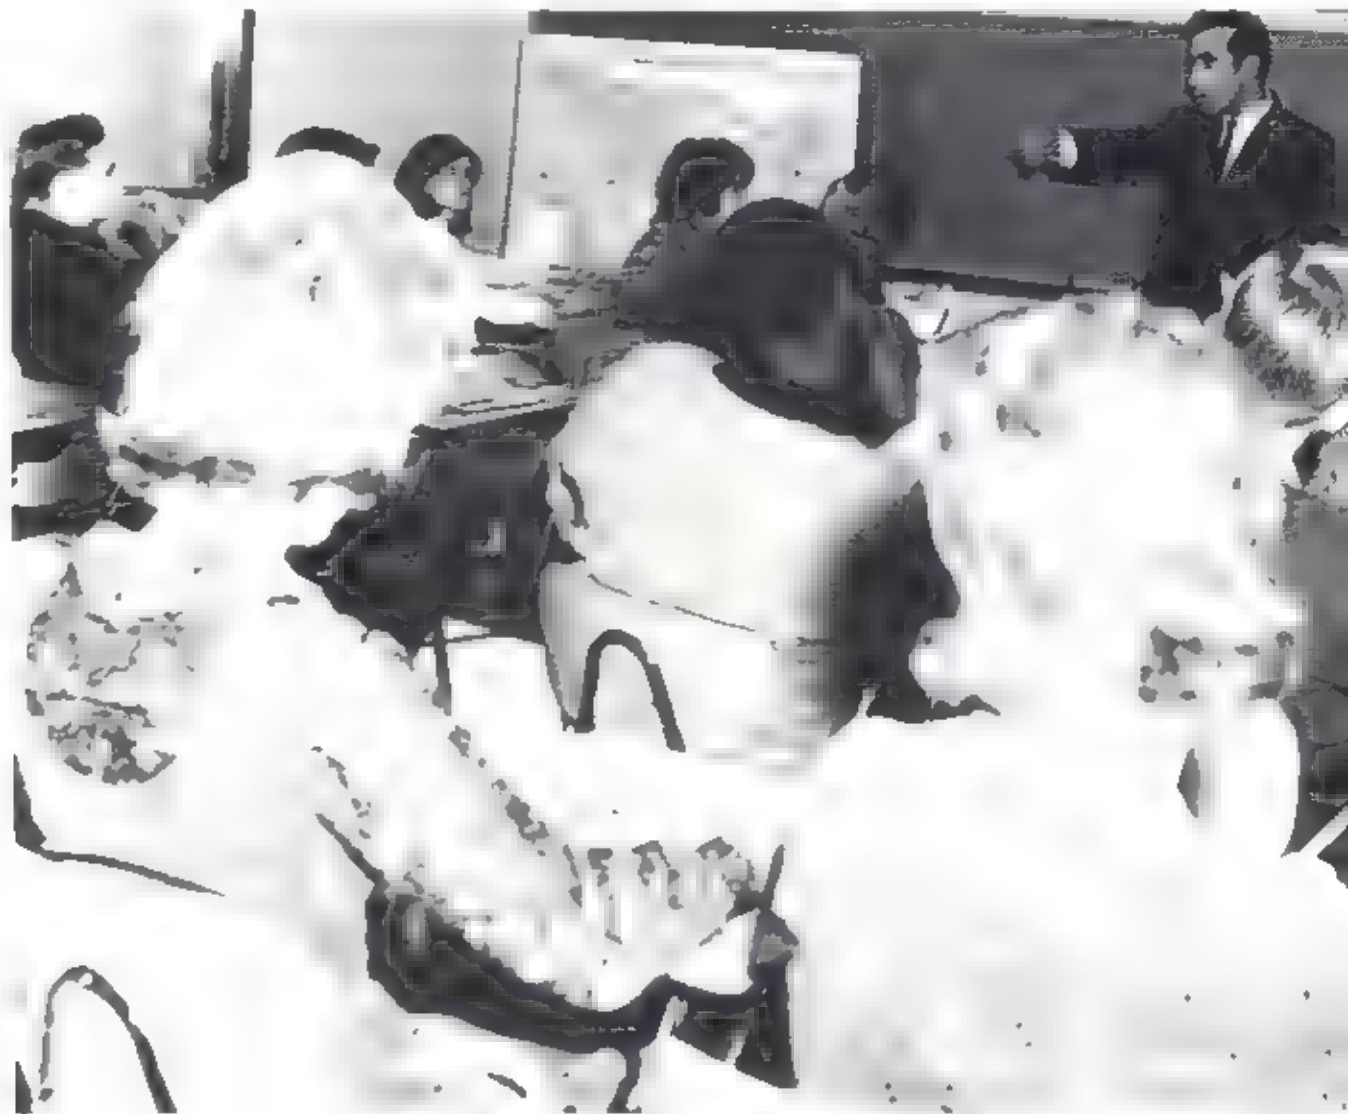

Mrs. Lightfoot directs her prize winning band.

Under Mr. Doctorian's instructive guidance, South Shelby students learn the foreign tongue of French.

Band and French

Art and Music

Mrs. Campbell, the art instructor, stresses the values of proper brush control.

VAN HOUTEN'S D.X. SERVICE

Vocal instructor, Mrs. King, helps the chorus put finishing touches on the contest numbers.

History and Study Hall

Mr. Doctorian teaches his students the history of our world.

The commons area is an excellent area for study.

Physical Education

Knee bends are in order for the boys P. E. classes.

Some are pretty good at push-ups, Then there are the others!

In the girls' P. E. classes, Miss Dempsey teaches her girls ballroom dancing.

BELT FUR, WOOL, AND SEED

Bring the knees up (!) girls.

HIRAM GREENWELL

E. J. LANGHAMMER

Principal, Assistant Superintendent, and Secretaries

MR. EDGAR MOORE is well equipped for his work as secondary principal because he has experienced many of the problems that a teacher has. Every day he supervises teachers and deals with student problems.

MR. JOHN CRAWFORD as assistant superintendent teaches two classes along with his many other obligations.

MRS. DOROTHY COX treasurer of the board, serves well in her position as a result of many years of work.

MRS. PAULINE BROWN'S alert and sympathetic interest in students and her devotion to South Shelby will be missed.

MRS. THELMA MILLION is well equipped for her position as secretary to the board because of her many years of experience.

Through far sighted vision and imaginative thinking, the Board of Education, with you as the president has made remarkable progress in providing for the growth of our schools, the new buildings, and the new pride in the standing of the school. These have been the products of the members of the board and of yours, Dr. Rice.

We thank you.

The defense, Marge Broughton, Fran Caldwell, and Janelle Jarboe, are taking a "big stride" to stop Palmyra's forwards from scoring during South Shelby's tournament, in which the girls went on to win first place.

Janelle's, Connie's, and Fran's eyes are on the ball. They must get it on the offense so they can rack up more points for South Shelby

Mr. Keller

Mr. Keller always told his basketball girls that the team was 90% the girls and 10% the coach. Mr. Keller was a very big 10% of the team if not more. Without him the girls could not have done as well in their year's play as they did. Many a time there were tensions and demanding situations, but Mr. Keller held his own as well as holding the team together. Mr. Keller taught the basketball girls much and they worked hard to be a good and winning team for their coach and school

Soon after South Shelby High opened its doors for the 1965-66 school year, the Student Council was planning its course of operations for the coming year. Homecoming brought the Satellites to the school for the dance. Their music provided the climax to a day when our band and colorful floats lined the streets, the Cardinals achieved a victory, and a new queen reigned. The Valentine dance with the Christie's Critters band, hearts, crepe paper streamers, and dim lights was probably one of the most memorable events of the year. Student Council donated money toward the purchase of new uniforms for our cheerleaders. Student Council elections marked the end of the year for 1965-66.

The senior girls of the NHS served their parents at the tea held after the annual initiation. Those who attended the tea were the old and new NHS members, their parents, and the faculty.

The annual initiation of the new members into the South Shelby Chapter of the NHS was held April 20, 1966. The senior NHS members were in charge of the ceremony to initiate the new NHS members. The new NHS members here are signing the scroll.

Sharon, Marge, Dianne, Nancy, Donald, and Frances attended the NHS Convention in Jefferson City.

Marge and Sharon were the voting delegates at the NHS Convention.

The National Honor Society has four main objectives: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service.

Scholarship is the broadening of the mind and the learning of all things. One must put forth hard and tireless effort to obtain high scholarship. One cheers, uplifts, and guides others by showing them what he has learned.

Character takes into consideration if a student meets responsibilities of the school and teachers, has high standards of reliability and honesty, exemplifies high standards of personality such as cheerfulness, neatness, poise, stability, etc., complies with school regulations, upholds principles of morality and ethics.

With leadership one successfully holds office and meets responsibilities, demonstrates leadership in class or organizations, exemplifies qualities and attitudes of influencing others for their good, and shows qualities of initiative and dependability.

In being of service one shows willingness to render service to school and community, does willingly committee or staff work, willingly assists visitors, teachers, and fellow students, shows willingness to represent school in various competitions.

Dedicatory Statement By Superintendent of Schools

The dedication of the South Shelby High School formally inaugurates the project we in this district have given ourselves--a project to provide the best educational program that we can. Certainly, a great portion of this project has been accomplished by the completion of the high school building. We have the satisfaction of seeing what has already been accomplished by the co-operation, support, and patience of those who support education. All who have contributed in any way can feel pride in what has been accomplished so far.

In addition to dedicating this building

we are also dedicating a plan of education. Although our attention today is directed mainly to the high school building, we are, also, dedicating a plan which includes all public school activities in our district. This plan was set in motion when the voters created the Shelby County R-IV District.

The high school building is completed; however, the implementing of the plan will be brought about by the continuation of our efforts to improve the quality, diversity, and effectiveness of the preparation of our young people to meet their needs educationally and socially.

Prom

"This is my fifth Playmate this week."

"Tee! Hee! I'm ticklish."

"I have a Q. T. tan."

"My timing was just like THAT!"

"You block, I'll run."

"You wouldn't believe what I just did!"

"Which one has the
M & M chocolate
candy?"

"Next?"

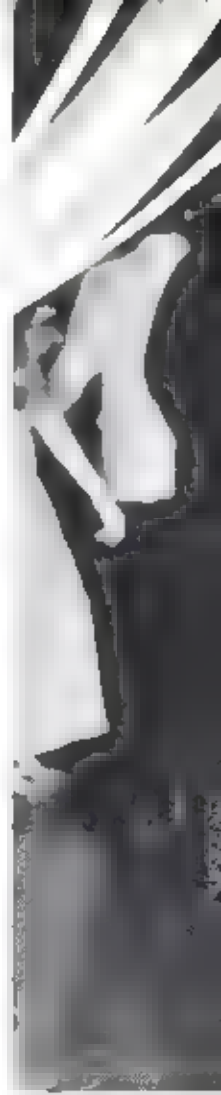

"Live, love, and be happy."

"No I don't want to dance."

"I could have danced all night."

"That will never work."

"Yes exercise will do it."

'You call this dancing?'

"What happened to Jim?"

Comes to a Close

The TECIS of 1965-66 is the first yearbook that has been published by the students of South Shelby High.

The TECIS this year will contain the records of our friends and classmates whom we have learned to know, cherish, and love. It will help us to remember activities and events, all of which help to make our mental image of high school days. We hope the TECIS will be cherished by you, and as years pass, it will call back pleasant memories of yesteryear.
